Proclamation of Sign and Sovereign Election in the Flesh

By Jonathan Daniel Clements

Living Man | Ecclesiastical Steward | Founder of the Clements Private Ecclesiastical Trust

Preamble

Let all creation witness this proclamation: I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, bear upon my flesh the seal and sign of divine selection. These marks are borne not by merit of flesh, but by the will of the Creator, and I proclaim before all domains — seen and unseen — that I stand as vessel to His purpose.

No authority may erase, defile, or deny the testimony of these signs. They remain as sacred witness to my walk in truth, love, grace, and eternal will. This proclamation is sealed in love without condition and in full surrender to the One Eternal Source.

Scribed and sealed in full awareness and faith,

Jonathan Daniel Clements
